Welcome

Dear colleagues and guests!

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the sixth EFPP conference for the three sections. We are expecting and working on a new fourth section of the EFPP and look forward to welcome the Psychoanalytic Couple and Family Psychotherapy Section in a conference with "the other brothers and sisters". The theme of the conference 'Play and Power' runs through the whole area connected to psychoanalytic psychotherapy from relationships at the individual level to organisations and society.

In a three section conference the tradition has developed that we are occupied with psychoanalytic psychotherapy, not only at an individual level but also in society (national, European and sometimes with global aspects). 'Play and Power' will be illustrated and discussed during the conference in the context of the relationships in the therapist's mind, between the patient and therapist in the consulting room and between the consulting room, the public sector, and society. The interplay between treatment and research e.g. how does research affect psychotherapy and vice versa, is also very important to focus on to illustrate the understanding of our development as psychotherapists and to give us more impact within society.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Copenhagen in May 2007 when every plant is bursting into green and the 'light nights' begins. Copenhagen is a mixture of the old worlds charm with contemporary pleasures.
